"WHEREAS, the Municipality of Bulalacao is a predominantly agricultural community, with a significant portion of its local economy and residents' livelihoods dependent on rice farming;

"WHEREAS, the National Food Authority (NFA) is mandated to ensure food security and stabilize the supply and price of rice, partly by procuring palay directly from local farmers, its sustained and fair-priced procurement of palay is crucial for protecting local farmers from price manipulation by traders and ensuring they receive a just and reasonable return on their hard work and investment;

"WHEREAS, a consistent and high volume of NFA procurement provides market stability, which is essential for the economic well-being of rice farmers in Bulalacao, especially during harvest seasons;
