RESOLUTION NO. 21-02-091

EARNESTLY REQUESTING THE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES TO ALSO CONSIDER SETTING FARM GATE PRICE CEILING ON SWINE, CHICKEN AND CATTLE PARTICULARLY IN THE MUNICIPALITY OF BULALACAO, PROVINCE OF ORIENTAL MINDORO

“WHEREAS, hog raising in the Philippines has been a profitable business for Filipinos through decades. Its popularity is evidently seen among backyards or rural families to augment their daily needs. While commercial piggeries still exist for both local consumption and for shipment to other provinces;

“WHEREAS, these exist a porks price crisis in Bulalacao, Oriental Mindoro today brought not by the scarcity of supply but by traders coming from other provinces buying pigs at high cost that made local hog raisers expecting for high profits to sell, instead of selling pigs to local traders at the low cost;

“WHEREAS, local pork vendors are forced to buy pigs at the same rate of that offered by buyers from other provinces so that the only means for them to cope-up is to increase the price of pork in the local market. At the end, the buying public became victims of the situation;

“WHEREAS, to maintain the equilibrium between the shippers and the local pork vendors, this Sanggunian believes that these must be a ceiling price maintained at the farm gate of every backyard hog raisers and commercial piggeries; Now, therefore, be it
