WHEREAS, Bulalacao, Oriental Mindoro is a vast agricultural land producing large volume of rice, corn, onions, garlic and huge varieties of fruits and vegetables which remains to be the major source of income of the residents;

WHEREAS, productivity in farming is driven by three important factors, technology, biological and environmental aspects where availability and sufficient supply of water to farmland at the most needed time is significant towards high production to achieve food sustainability and security of the community and of the country as a whole;

WHEREAS, farmers suffered from natural disasters such as flooding and drought. In recent years, climate change has made life even more difficult for farmers because droughts lasted longer and typhoons became more frequent making it difficult for farmers to decide what crops is to be planted, which resulted to low agricultural productivity;

WHEREAS, as an intervention and to mitigate the impacts of climate change subsequently safeguarding the well-being of our farmers and sustain the food production of the country, irrigation canals and dams projects were constructed to farming communities to ensure the continuous and sufficient supply of water throughout the years;

WHEREAS, to protect the farmers from the adverse effects of climate change, the Local Government Unit of Bulalacao is expressing its commitment and involvement in the protection and preservation of its natural resources as well as its irrigation infrastructures for the social and economic benefits of the farmers and the community; Now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED To: Express support and commitment of the Local Government Unit of Bulalacao, Oriental Mindoro on the control and regulation of illegal activities within the periphery of NIA's dams and irrigation structures in the Municipality of Bulalacao, this Province;

ON MOTION of SB Member Elpidio N. Contreras, Jr., SB Member Edezer F. Aceron and SB Member Felix John C. Templanza duly seconded by SB Member Jess V. Sapungan, foregoing was...
