“WHEREAS, the recently concluded administration was focused in expanding access and ensuring more Filipinos received decent basic education, and to enhance the existing educational system, as a means of reducing poverty and improving national competitiveness;

“WHEREAS, the burgeon of the new administration sets the highest hope and trust to every Filipinos in providing quality education, for the reason that the now second highest rank official of the country will be the one to uphold and continue the mandate of the Department of Education;

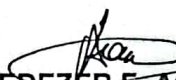

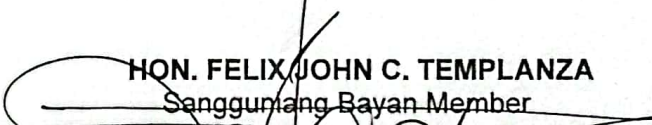

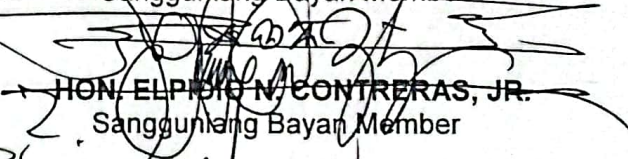

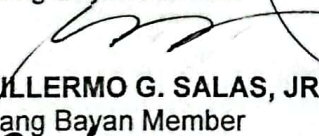

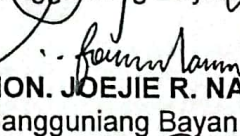

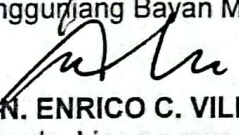

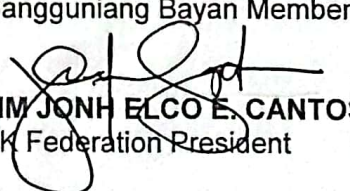

“WHEREAS, Bulalacao is 3rd class municipality hounded with financial constraints, has a municipal government that promotes, upholds, and supports “Education for All” advocacy, the updated number of schools within the municipality are 46 elementary schools including extensions and 22 high schools including extensions;

"WHEREAS, majority of the elementary and secondary schools in the said municipality are located in depressed areas and still in the process of concreting its physical form, hence, provision of funds for the construction of school buildings is modestly needed to produce enough classrooms in sustaining the teaching capacity based on the teacher-student ratio that would certainly proceed in giving quality education for every learner; Now, therefore, be it...
