"WHEREAS, the Catholic Church in its certain inclusiveness, holding together a community of traits or ideas which need not and should not be separated because they are rooted in one and the same apostolic faith, that also implies that diversity is not only to be tolerated but to be welcomed as a gift of God's abundant goodness;

"WHEREAS, religious institutions are important in the life of our nation as they play a major role in the proper moral formation of the people, espousing doctrines which are complementary to the principles of responsible citizenship, in the light of our modern world we live in, religious institutions become more relevant as believers focus on the essence of spirituality and higher purpose of life;

HON. RAMON G. MAGBANUA
HON. ENRICO C. VILLAS

"WHEREAS, Sr. Maria Josie A. Ferrer of Sitio Tabuk, Barangay Poblacion, Municipality of Bulalacao, Oriental Mindoro has brought evangelical honor in this Municipality for her successful Perpetual Religious Confession at St. Joseph Chapel, Cavite held on May 22, 2024;

"WHEREAS, she attained her basic education in Bulalacao Elementary School in year 2004 and then completed her secondary education in Bulalacao National High School in year 2008 then went to Rogationist College in Cavite and graduated in year 2013;

"WHEREAS, she pursued to the convent at Daughters of St. Joseph of Caburlotto for her formation on April 25, 2017 and took her 1st Religious Profession on May 22, 2024 and because of the love she impelled into the service of the people of God and through her faithful commitment, she finally had her final perpetual profession deepening her discernment and service to the community and be a religious influential leader; Now, therefore, be it...
